ART MATERIAL & SUPPLIES

2

1250 BCE

ANCIENT CIVILISATIONS

Art and art forms flourished in ancient civilizations like Greece, India, China and Rome. In ancient Egypt, brushes made from reeds or animal hair were used with natural pigments to paint on papyrus scrolls.

1

PALEOLITHIC ERA

PREHISTORIC BEGINNINGS

Prehistoric cave dwellers started depicting their daily life and major events through paintings on cave walls, using their hands, stones, animal hair and skin, and delicate twigs as tools. Caves of Altamira and Lascaux are significant sites of this early expression of art.

3

14th - 16th CENTURY

THE RENAISSANCE MASTERPIECES

The Middle Ages gave way to a new cultural movement in Europe - The Renaissance. As society modernized, artists started favouring realism to create artworks that were emotive and immersive, using delicate quills, improved brushes, and rich oil paints applied to wooden panels and plastered walls to create their masterpieces.

4

19th - EARLY 21st
CENTURY

IMPRESSIONISM AND EXPRESSIONISM

Significant changes in art were witnessed during this period. Impressionism departed from the smooth, blended techniques of the past in favour of shorter, but distinct brush strokes applied to canvas. Expressionists portrayed subjective perspectives in their art by distorting composition and colours on canvases and paper.

5

PRESENT

CONTEMPORARY ART

Art and culture underwent seismic changes during this phase, combining traditional art approaches with new-age technologies like digital software, 3D printing, and multimedia, enabling artists to reinvent the art of expression on both physical and digital canvases.
